The 2023 Welsh Mountain Sheep Society Open Day will be held under the auspices of the Denbighshire branch at Tŷ Celyn Farm, Rhiw, Groes, Denbigh on Saturday 30th of September at 1:00pm, courtesy of Iorwerth and Bet Williams & family.

Tŷ Celyn has been breeding Welsh Mountain Sheep and rams for over four generations. The farm grazes 300 acres which extends from 900 feet up to 1200 feet. A flock of 450 Welsh ewes and a 100 yearlings is reared. 300 of the ewes are pure breed and a 150 are crossed with a blue faced leister ram. The farm also keep 300 Welsh mules using texel rams. All the fat lambs are sold at St Asaph market. Tŷ Celyn also sell around a 100 texel and mule ewe lambs at Ruthin Market's annual sale.

15 cross suckler cows are kept using a Limousin bull and sell stores between 15 and 20 months old.

Light refreshments will be provided for you.

To reach Tŷ Celyn, from the direction of Denbigh, you must turn in the village of Groes towards Rhydgaled - keep going for about a mile and a half until you reach Tŷ Celyn's farmhouse on the left.

From the direction of Pentrefoelas, drive through the village of Bylchau in the direction of Denbigh, turn left after 600 yards towards Rhydgaled (there is a sign for Rhydgaled and Chapel Rhiw at the turn). The road will fork in less than a mile and it will be necessary to keep to the right, turn right at the crossroads and then Tŷ Celyn's farm house will be on the right in 300 yards.
